"A copy of the report of the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings should be communicated to the Director, Anti Corruption Bureau, along with a copy of the final orders passed by Government in cases of corruption investigated by the Anti-corruption Bureau and enquired into by the Tribunal".

2. In view of the above provision, the Director, Anti Corruption Bureau has requested the Government to make available to him a copy of the report of the Commissioner for Departmental Enquiries so as to enable him to know whether all the evidence presented during the enquiry has been taken into consideration by the forum that has conducted the enquiry while arriving at a provisional conclusion and whether the presenting officer has committed any irregularities in presenting the prosecution and also to know where the case failed so that future investigations can be improved.

3. After careful consideration of the above request of the Director of Anti Corruption Bureau, Government have decided that the agency that has conducted the investigation as well as the prosecutions be furnished with a copy of the report of the forum that has conducted the enquiry, whether it be the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings or the Commissioner for Departmental Enquiries for information. The Government have also decided that the Director, Anti Corruption Bureau should not make any comments on it. Therefore, the following sentence shall be substituted for the penultimate sentence of Part IV of G.O.Ms.No.677, G.A. (Ser. D) Dept. dated 30-5-1961, referred to above;

"A copy of the report of the forum that has conducted the enquiry, whether it be the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings or the Commissioner for Departmental Enquiries, should be communicated to the Director, Anti Corruption Bureau, along with a copy of the final orders passed by the Government. As the report is intended only for the information of the Anti Corruption Bureau, the Director, Anti Corruption Bureau should not, however, comment on the report of the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings or the Commissioner for Departmental Enquiries.

The Chairman, Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings has brought to the notice of Government that the Departments do not generally intimate the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings the fact of retirement of officers against whom enquiries are pending before the Tribunal for Disciplinary proceedings during the pendency of such enquiry. In the G.O. first cited, orders were issued inter alia authorising the Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings to pay batta and Travelling Allowance to non-official witnesses according to the scales prescribed in the Criminal Rules of practice for the time being in force.
